NEW YORK : 1909

Press of J. J. Little & Ives Co.
425-435 East Twenty-fourth Street, New York

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, and therefore, in his judgment, likely to affect the Sale injuriously.

3. The Purchasers to give their names and addresses and, if so requested, to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the purchase price, at the time of sale; the remainder of the purchase price to be paid or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Managers, on or before delivery: Upon failure to comply with the above conditions the article purchased shall, at the election of the Auctioneer, be re-sold either immediately or within a reasonable time, and either at public or private sale and without notice other than that here given.

If so re-sold, the first Purchaser's account shall be credited with his deposit (if any) and the amount obtained on the second sale less all charges attending the same, and the deficiency (if any) shall be a charge against the defaulting Purchaser at the sale.

If the Auctioneer shall not elect to re-sell an article sold, but not delivered for the reason above given, then the Vendor thereof may at his election either enforce the sale to the Purchaser or cancel the same.

4. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement for purchases, no Lot is to be removed during the Sale; all Lots, however, must be removed within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale.

5. After a lot is sold the Purchaser assumes all risk of any damage, theft or loss, except that which can be charged to the negligence and carelessness of the undersigned.

6. All lots are to be taken away at the Purchaser's expense and risk. The undersigned will afford to Purchasers every facility for employing careful carriers and packers. They are, however, in no manner connected with the business of the cartage or packing and shipping of purchases, and will not hold themselves responsible for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such services.

7. Neither the Vendor nor the undersigned will hold themselves responsible for the correctness of the description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any Lot, nor will they make any warranty whatever. They will, however, upon receiving previous to date of Sale trustworthy expert opinion in writing that any Painting or Work of Art is not what it is represented to be, use every effort on their part to furnish proof to the contrary; failing in which, the object or objects in question will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the Owner or Owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned thereby.

THE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, MANAGERS.

NOTE.

The collection of Siamese and Cambodian objects described in the following pages was collected during a period of thirty-five years by a Siamese official. It includes many exceedingly rare objects saved from the ruins of famous ancient temples during the invasion of Siam by the French, and is particularly rich in Buddhist Scriptures written on palm leaves, old temple ornaments, objects typical of the old-time handwork of Siam and Cambodia, and Buddhistic images (in great numbers), including four life-size heads of Buddha in bronze dating from the sixth century.

In addition are some rare specimens of metal-work from North Borneo.
